

6 Rules for Sharing

1. You don't have to share
2. If you have a special toy you don't want anyone to play with, put it away, otherwise...
3. Toys, games, etc. are 'first come, first serve'
4. If I want the toy, game, etc., parents should invoke the 10 minute rule:
 - i.e. you get to play with the toy/game in 10 minutes, or 'when your brother is done'
5. If both parties arrive at the toy/game at the same time, flip a coin
6. It's nice to share. If you share with your brother, your brother is more likely to share with you and it will make your brother happy